If there be any Exception at the Veiwer's Judgment, the Owner of the Tobacco ſhall name one, and the Creditor or Veiwer another; and (if they diſſent) the Commander a third; which two, or three, ſhall determine the Exception.

The Oath of a Veiwer.

'You ſhall ſweare to veiw, without Delay, with ſuch ordinary Dilligence as you uſe, or would uſe, in Tobacco to be received by yourſelf, all Tobacco whereof your Judgment ſhall be demanded, within the Hundred of N, by Vertue of the Law in that Behalf made: You ſhall not promiſe, practiſe, or contract, to or with any Perſon or Perſons, directly or indirectly, to be willfully or wittingly, connivent, partiall, or difficult, in the allowing or diſallowing of any Tobacco by you to be veiwed; nor ſhall you, at any Time before or after ſuch Veiwing, directly or indirectly, take or receive any Gratuity, Hire, Recompence, or Benefit, in one Thing or other, for or in Conſideration of ſuch Veiwing, allowing or diſallowing of any Tobacco more or farther then the lawfull Fee: But true and impartiall Judgment ſhall make and give, whether it be bad or no, by the Intent of the ſaid Law, according to the beſt of your Skill and Concience; and if you find it bad; you ſhall like true Judgment make and give, whether you think it bad for the greater Part or no; and if you judge it bad for the leſſer Part only, you ſhall cull all the bad out of it, as neerly and exactly as you may with ordinarie Dilligence, and the ſame ſhall burne according to the Law, and the Reſidue ſhall diſpoſe of according to the Law: And if you judge it bad for the greater Part of it, you ſhall burne, or cauſe the whole Quantity conteined in ſuch Caſk to be burned to Aſhes, without Delay or Favour, ſo farr as the ſaid Law ſhall permitt. And in all other Points you ſhall faithfully and dilligently execute and diſcharge the Office, Truſt, and Duety of a Veiwer, according to the ſaid Law, ſo far as you ſhall be able. So help you God, &c.

WILLIAMSBURG.

Auguſt 16. On Thurſday laſt his Honour the Preſident gave an Audience to the Ambaſſador of the Cherrokee Nation, attended by his Nobles; when his Honour was pleaſed to make the following Speech.

Friends and Brethren,

I Heartily congratulate you upon your ſafe Arrival in Williamſburg; and hope, in your Journey through the Inhabitants of this Colony, you have met with kind Treatment, and hoſpitable Entertainment: You may be well aſſured that every Thing will be provided for you, whilſt you continue here, to render the Place agreeable to you. I hope you left our good Friend and Brother, the Emperor of the Cherrokee Nation, in Health, and the Nation itſelf in Proſperity. I have appointed this Meeting, to give you an Opportunity of communicating to me the important Buſineſs that has brought you to this City, through ſuch a vaſt Extent of Country.

To which the Chief of them returned the following ANSWER.

Brother,

WE ſet off from the Town of Choto to viſit you, and learn what you had to ſay to us. Our Emperor ſent us here to acquaint the Governor of Virginia, that when his Father was in England, the King directed and adviſed him to apply to the Governor of Virginia or Carolina, whenever the Cherrokees were in want of any Thing. We are juſt come down, and have now ſeen our Brother and the reſt of our Friends. We are inſtructed to inform you, that four Years ago we waited on the Governor of South Carolina, to endeavour to prevail on him to encourage a Trade between the Subjects of that Colony and the Cherrokees, and to ſupply us with Ammunition and other Neceſſaries; which he promiſed to do, but has not performed. This was the principal Cauſe of our coming here, and the Experience we have had of the Path to Carolina being very difficult and incommodious for carrying on a Trade there, an additional Reaſon. Moreover, the Governor of Carolina has furniſhed the Creek Indians, our Enemies, with Ammunition and other Neceſſaries, and given them very diſtinguiſhing Tokens of Kindneſs. Upon theſe Conſiderations, our Emperor has ſent us to ſollicit a Confirmation of your Friendſhip, and to deſire that you will be pleaſed to ſend white People amongſt us, and eſtabliſh a Commerce between the King of Great-Britain's Subjects, Inhabitants of this Dominion, and the Indians of the Cherrokee Nation.

If our Requeſt is granted, we promiſe to make a Road to facilitate a Trade between us; and as we are at War with all the French Indians, we'll guard the Road, and ſecure the Inhabitants of Virginia in paſſing to our Towns, and be accountable for any Loſs they may ſuſtain.

King George told our Emperor, that when any of the Inhabitants of Virginia or Carolina were at War with the French, we muſt aſſiſt them; which we are, and always ſhall be ready to do.

To

To which the President reply'd.

Friends and Brethren,

WHat you have imparted to me is of so much Consequence, that it is necessary for me to take the Advice of his Majesty's Council upon it, before I can return you an Answer.

On Friday the Council met; and the next Day the President gave the Indians a second Audience, and made the following Speech.

The SPEECH of the Honourable LEWIS BURWELL, Esq; President of his Majesty's Council, and Commander in Chief of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia, to the Chiefs and Nobles of the Cherrokees, at a second Audience in Williamsburg, August 10, 1751.

Friends and Brethren,

THE Business you imparted to me the other Day I have communicated to his Majesty's Council, and by their Advice assure you, that this Government will always endeavour to cultivate a Harmony and good Correspondence between his Majesty's Subjects and our Friends the Cherokees; and you may depend upon all due Encouragement being given to the Inhabitants that shall be inclined to trade with you, for our mutual Benefit: And as a Pledge of our Friendship and good Wishes, that a lasting Peace and flourishing Trade may be established between us, I make you a Present of Two Hundred Pounds, out of which I have directed a handsome Present to be made to the Emperor of Choto, as a Mark of our Esteem and Friendship for him; and likewise a Present to your Interpreter; and the Remainder to be divided amongst you, according to your Discretion.

To which the Chief answered.

Brother,

WE have travell'd through Bushes and Briars to see our Friends of Virginia: We have no Cause to repent of our long and tedious Journey; the Pain and Fatigue we have undergone are compensated, by the kind and generous Reception we have met with, and we are much pleased with what you have communicated to us, and shall make a faithful Relation of it to our Emperor. Our Hearts are strait, we shall always preserve in them what we have heard from you; and ever retain a grateful Remembrance of your Favours. We have given our Promise to make a good Road for the People of this Country, who shall be disposed to trade with us, and to protect and secure them from all Danger, which we shall stedfastly adhere to. You have supplied all our Wants, and we have nothing to desire but the Continuance of your Friendship.

After which the President took them all by the Hand, wished them a good Journey home, and Prosperity to their Emperor and the Cherrokee Nation.

On Monday the President had a private Conversation with them, when he explain'd to them the Happiness and Advantages the Christians enjoy, in the Hopes and Assurance of a blessed Immortality; and from thence persuaded them to send some of their Children to be educated at the College, that by their Means they might be instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion, and be Partakers of the same Happiness with the English. They heartily thank'd his Honour for this Instance of his Affection, and assured him that his Offer was very agreeable to them; but that they could return no Answer without consulting their Emperor.

About a Week before the Arrival of the Cherrokees, it was rumour'd, that the Nottaway Indians, being very inveterate against them, were determined to lie in Ambush and intercept them. This Nation, 'twas said, was exasperated against the Cherrokees, for murdering, many Years ago, seven of their young Men, whom they had invited to hunt with them; and had resolved to embrace this favourable Opportunity of revenging themselves. The President being informed of this, and a Report prevailing, that they had cross'd James River, and were on their March to the Westward, with an Intent to wait on the Road in Order to put their Design in Execution, ordered all the Cherrokees to be compleatly arm'd, that they might be able to defend themselves in Case of an Attack; and likewise issued a Proclamation, strictly requiring the Nottaways to desist from their bloody Design, and to repair immediately to their own Habitations to avoid the most rigorous Prosecution; commanding also all Magistrates, Sheriffs, and others, to be aiding and assisting in preserving the Peace in their respective Counties.

But all these Precautions prov'd unnecessary, the Nottaways arriving in Town yesterday with a white Flag. The Cherrokees being inform'd of their Arrival, immediately gave the Signal of War, and were preparing for Battle; but several Gentlemen representing to them the friendly Appearance of the Nottaways, advised them to march out, and meet them in the same friendly Manner: At first they were inflexible; but being at last prevailed on, they hoisted a white Flag, and marching by Beat of Drum, met the Nottoways in the Market place, each Party singing the Song of Peace. After many of their accustomed Ceremonies, they join'd Hands and smoak'd the Pipe of Peace together: But not being able to hold any Conference, the Crowd being very great, they repaired to the Court House; where the Nottaways being sensible that these were not the Indians who had done them the Injury they complain'd of, produced a Belt of Wampum, which they had receiv'd of the Cherrokees at their last Peace, and desired a Continuance of their Friendship. The Orator, who negotiates all their Treaties, receiv'd the Wampum, and rising up, made a long Speech to his Friends, telling them that he himself had many Years ago given this Belt as a Token of Peace; that he now found it intire, not a Bead amiss, and from thence concluded that their Hearts were strait, and their Friendship preserv'd intire: Afterwards, by the unanimous Consent of all his People, he made a Present of a Pipe of Peace, assuring them of his Friendship. All Differences being thus adjusted to the Satisfaction of both Parties, they met in the Evening at the Camp of the Cherrokees; where making a large Fire, they danced together round it, and concluded the Evening with Harmony and Chearfulness.
